the rubber for the Baltimores yesterday at American Park and was a complete puzzle to Manager Manning's new Senatorial outfit, but three hits being made off of his delivery. Foreman recently appeared on the local grounds in a Boston uniform and was batted out of the box, but the local plays have fallen into a rut in the batting line and almost any old twirler can now pitch puzzling ball against them. Foreman resterday had nothing in the way of speed curves, but he used his head with good effect and as a result pop flies were the order of the day. Wyatt Lee was on the rubber for the Senators, and he was given quite a trimming by the Orioles, Jimmy Williams especially placing the ball safely three times in the most clever style. Lee has been worked too hard of late, because Gear had to play in the outfield and Mer-cer was injured, but Manager Manning is desirous of giving the local people the best he has, and as a result the clever left-hander went out to slaughter again yesterday. With the new men added to the team Lee will be given a chance to rest and then different stories will be told when he is on the rubber.

Foreman's pitching was really the fea-ture of the game, as there were no sensa-tional fielding efforts, although Foster made a good throw home and retired Bro-die, who tried to score on a fly and out to

The Baltimores began business in the first The Baltimores began business in the first inning, chasing two runs over the plate in real business-like style. McGraw was given a base on balls, and after Donlin had fouled out to Clarke, Williams' double sent him to third. Keister then hit a hot one to Lee and McGraw was run down on the base line. The Orioles' captain made a great play between the Senators, who were after him, and came within a hair's breadth of getting off safely. White McGraw was being run down Williams moved up to third and Keister to seconds. Sevenour then came and Keister to seconda Seymour then came to the front with a beautiful single into right, and the two Orioles chased across the tally. Clarke singled to center and went to second as Foreman made a wild throw to first to catch Captain Bill napping. A wild pitch followed, and Clarke went to third, coming home as Dungan was being put out by Keister to Donlin. Score:

right, and the two Orioles chased across the plate.

In the fourth inning something was doing again, with the Orioles at the right end of the stick. Jackson singled to left and was cleverly passed to second by Brodie's sacrifice. Robinson then slipped in a single to left and Jackson crossed the plate. After Foreman had fanned, McGraw hit a liner almost to the center field fence and Robbie crossed the plate. In the fifth the Orioles got their fifth and last run. Williams singled to center and cleverly stole second. Two outs followed, but Jackson singled into right and Williams scored.

ENDED IN A FOG. Third Race of Constitution, Columbia

and Independence. The third race between the Constitution, Columbia and Independence came to an inglorious end late yesterday afternoon off Newport, R. I., in a dead calm and the thickest kind of Atlantic fog. There was little time to form judgment on the relative speeds of the three boats, for in less than half an hour after the start the boats ran into the fog and at no time after that could all three be seen at one time.

A little over an hour after the start the Constitution withdrew and came back to Constitution withdrew and came back to the city. The Columbia and the Independence stood on for the outer mark, which they rounded with the Columbia about a mile in the lead. The wind, however, died down almost to a calm, and the leading boat could not finish in the time limit. The race was, therefore, off and will be sailed over today. At the time the Constitution withdrew she was leading the Columbia in the beat to windward by nearly a mile and the Independence by nearly two miles.

The feature of the day was the magnificent navigation of Captain Charlie Barr of the Columbia. In a fog so thick that at times it was impossible to see from one line to the other he brought his boat sure and true to the outer mark and rounded to marrificent style. The other feature was and true to the outer mark and rounded in magnificent style. The other feature was the remarkably close start, only four seconds elapsing between the first and last boat to cross. The Independence, the last boat to cross, was only seven seconds behind the starting gun.

TO PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP. Navy Yard Marines to Meet Those

What promises to be one of the most interesting and spirited amateur base ball contests of the season will take place tomorrow afternoon at American League Park between nines from the navy yard and marine corps headquarters. The game will be the deciding one for the championship of the army, navy and marine corps of the District of Columbia, Maryland and are among the players on each team, while are among the players on each team, while others of the players have done service in minor leagues. Tickets to the number of about 1,000 have been sold so far. will be used to defray ground rental and minor expenses.

The navy yard has only half as many men to pick from as its apponents, and therefore is at a slight disadvantage; but, owing to the efforts of Mr. Henry H. Scott, manager of the team, the players have rounded into great shape, and if they should not be victorious they will more than probably give the headquarters team a hard rub for the game.

The headquarters team can also be counted upon to give a good exhibition of ball playing, as it includes such stars as Babylon, Smith of the Raleigh, N. C., team; Latimer of Dixon College of Illinois, Watt of the Interstate League and Turner, who comes from New England.

The teams will line up as follows:

Navy Yard—Coombs, first base; Boland, pitcher; Pontz, catcher; Walters, second base; Kelly, short stop; Reynolds, third base; Murray, left field; Heckathorne, center field; Baker, right field.
